The reason why Multiplayer Crack will.Q: Center Window, Resize To Fit Browser, and Scroll Bottom Position I'm needing to have a window centered in a browser, sized to fit, and stay centered. I know that the position should be "fixed" and I've been able to find many websites that show me how to have a window centred in the browser, but I can't find any that show me how to do the other two. That is, I need to be able to scroll down to the bottom of the page and have the window fit the browser, and not leave a scrollbar. Is there any way to do this with Javascript or jQuery? Thanks. A: I was given an answer. In order to do this with jQuery, you use the following: $(document).ready(function() { $('html, body').animate({ scrollTop: $('object').offset().top }, 'slow'); var winWidth = $(window).width(); var winHeight = $(window).height(); var fullPageWidth = $('.container').width(); var fullPageHeight = $('.container').height(); var windowPosition = $('.container').position(); var leftPos = windowPosition.left + winWidth / 2 - fullPageWidth / 2; var topPos = windowPosition.top + winHeight / 2 - fullPageHeight / 2; if (topPos < 0) { topPos = leftPos;
