I have had the experience of being in an elevator car with a female who had just had a baby. Her entire body was a mess. She had a big belly and her breasts were heavy. She was probably just pushing down on the elevator buttons because she wanted to hide her breasts. By virtue of it being a traffic free environment, you will inevitably have a lot of people walking by every day. But you won't want to suffer the embarrassment of having that much time alone with your girlfriends. Luckily there are some practical solutions to this problem, allowing you to have the companionship you need and at the same time minimize the awkwardness. The first and most obvious solution is to form some kind of a c6a93da74d
